Working in the Agency will put you at the heart of the European Commission's ambition to help rebuild a post-COVID-19 Europe, which will be greener, more digital, more resilient and better fit for the current and forthcoming challenges.

Staff engagement as a top priority, opportunities to provide meaningful feedback and share ideas, teamwork, open communication and room for innovation are common markers of HaDEA's culture.

The staff of HaDEA is committed to the seven values defined through a participatory process: client orientation, excellence, fairness, integrity, transparency, trust and work-life balance. Some of them are common to the public service principles for EU civil servants our staff also stands for: commitment, integrity, objectivity, respect for others, transparency.

HaDEA is a workplace in which employees feel proud to belong. The Agency facilitates a working environment where staff are encouraged to keep their skills up to date and develop additional competencies. Several wellbeing initiatives in the areas of physical, mental and organisational health are aimed at supporting staff to improve their resilience to cope with the demands of a world in constant change.

HaDEA has an on-boarding programme to support staff arrivals to the Agency.
