EUROPEAN HEALTH AND DIGITAL EXECUTIVE AGENCY (HADEA)

Data Protection Notice for

Workshop 'AI Continuum: Beyond Now'

Brussels, September 2025

This Data Protection Notice describes the measures taken to protect your personal data with regard to the action involving the present data processing operation and what rights you have as a data subject.

European Health and Digital Executive Agency (HaDEA or Agency) protects the fundamental rights and freedoms of natural persons and in particular your right to privacy and the protection of your personal data.

Your personal data are processed in accordance with Regulation (EU) No 2018/1725[1] on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data.

What are the purposes of this processing activity?

The purposes are to inform participants and speakers participating in the Workshop 'AI Continuum: Beyond Now' about the processing activities related to their personal data.

It covers:

- Registration of participants to an in-person event in the framework of the Workshop 'AI Continuum: Beyond Now', management of their participation, and inclusion in a participant list for logistic purposes;
- Management of follow-up meetings and other related follow-up actions, such as the collection of feedback, the distribution of contact lists, invitations, news, reports, other publications and information material, and sending of emails informing on future activities related to the event;
- Collection of event statistics.

Who is the data controller?

The data controller of the processing operation is the Head of Unit B.2 of the HaDEA.

Which personal data is collected?

The following of your personal data are collected: your first name, last name, title and function, affiliation, e-mail address, phone number, ID number and expiry date, nationality and date of birth. All personal data are mandatory for the purpose(s) outlined above and access to the EC buildings.

Please note that it is also possible that photographs of you will be taken during the event and might be used for related communication purposes. Upon registration, you can give your explicit consent to have your image recorded and published on related communication channels, such as

[1] Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 and Decision No 1247/2002/EC (OJ L295/39 of 21.11.2018).

on the HaDEA's/EC intranet and website, as well as on HaDEA's LinkedIn and X accounts. In the absence of your consent, the organiser will try to find suitable alternatives, so that you can fully take part in the event.

Who has access to the personal data of data subjects and to whom can they be disclosed?

The recipients of your personal data will be authorised staff of the Agency and Commission in charge of the organisation and follow-up of the event, and bodies in charge of monitoring or inspection tasks in application of Union or national law (e.g. internal audits, Court of Auditors, European Anti-fraud Office (OLAF), law enforcement bodies).

The public may have access to the published photographs for communication purposes if your consent has been provided, as mentioned in the point above.

Your personal data will not be transferred to third countries or international organisations.

The processing of your data will not include automated decision-making (such as profiling).

Third party tools used for the organisation of the Workshop 'AI Continuum: Beyond Now'.

The event will be organised on-site, and the following tool will be used for its organisation: EU Survey.
The EU survey services provided by the European Commission collects from the data subjects the personal data referred to in Section 'W*hich personal data is collected*'. It hosts the collected personal data on servers of the European Commission Data Centre. For information on how EU Survey uses cookies and how it processes personal data, please see: EUSurvey - Privacy Statement.

Which is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

The legal basis for the processing activities is/are:

- Article 5(1)(a) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 because processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest (or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Union institution or body)[2] laid down in Union law;
- Article 5(1)(d) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 based on your explicit prior consent for your non-mandatory personal data indicated below.

How to withdraw your consent and the consequences of doing this

If you want us to delete the personal data collected for this workshop, please contact us and we will do it at the latest 10 working days after your request.

Please note that withdrawing your consent does not affect the lawfulness of any processing based on your consent before this consent is withdrawn. Attention is drawn to the consequences of a delete request, which means that all your contact details will be lost.

How long do we keep your personal data?

Your data will be kept for a maximum period of 6 months after the end of the event. Data will be deleted at the end of this period.

Photographed data of you will be kept a maximum period of 6 months after the end of the event.

The data collected for the purpose of EC building access (i.e: ID number and expiry date, nationality and date of birth) will be deleted the day after the event has taken place.

[2] Act of Establishment: Commission Implementing Decision (EU) 2021/173 of 12 February 2021 establishing the European Health and Digital Executive Agency and Regulation (EU) 2021/695 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 28 April 2021 establishing Horizon Europe – the Framework Programme for Research and Innovation, laying down its rules for participation and dissemination, and repealing Regulations (EU) No 1290/2013 and (EU) No 1291/2013 (Text with EEA relevance).

What are your rights regarding your personal data?

You have the right to access your personal data and to request your personal data to be rectified, if the data is inaccurate or incomplete; where applicable, you have the right to request restriction or to object to processing, to request a copy or erasure of your personal data held by the data controller. If processing is based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time, without affecting the lawfulness of the processing based on your consent before its withdrawal.

Your request to exercise one of the above rights will be dealt with without undue delay and within one month.

If you have any queries concerning the processing of your personal data or wish to exercise any of the rights described above, you can contact the HaDEA DPO HADEA-DPO@ec.europa.eu

You shall have right of recourse at any time to the European Data Protection Supervisor at EDPS@edps.europa.eu.
